Becketts London Dry
£4.00 40%
London, UK

London Dry Gin infused with handpicked English Juniper berries from Box Hill in Surrey and the finest mint from the riverside at Kingston upon Thames, Moroccan Lime, Spanish sweet orange peel for an exquisite taste and a wonderfully smooth gin.

Perfect serve – Ice, mint & lime.

Cambridge Dry £4.50
42% Cambridge, UK

From the makers of the most expensive gin in the world (Watenshi at £2000 a bottle) The Cambridge Dry is created from a recipe grown in the distillery garden; flowers and herbs from their gardens. Lemon verbena, rosemary, basil and rose petals for a fresh crisp elegant gin.

Perfect serve – Classic. Ice, lemon zest.

Poetic License £4.00
41.4% Sunderland, UK

Sweet Bell Pepper & Naga Chilli

From the exclusive Rarities range, the smokiness from chillies is first on the nose, followed by sweetness from juniper and yellow and green bell peppers. This gin will blow your socks off with flavour, but not with heat. It is milder than you may expect from such potent chillies.

Perfect serve – Ice, slices of bell pepper.

Also great with tomato juice as a Red Snapper.

Left Hook Dry
£5.00
47.2% Flanders, Belgium

Stunning gin from mixologist Manuel Wouters. An exclusive combination of punchy spices and herbs; pink peppercorns, tarragon, ginger root, mace and bay leaf for an irresistible taste.

Perfect serve – Ice, pink peppercorns and lime.

Nelsons Timur
£4.50 41% Grindley, UK

The Timur Pepper is hand picked in the mountains around Nepal at around 1200 metres altitude.

Timur has a unique aroma which has tropical, grapefruit notes added to Nelsons original London dry recipe of lemongrass, kaffir lime, cinnamon and vanilla. A Truly special gin!

Perfect serve – Ice, grapefruit peel.

Rendle's Pink
£4.50 40% California, USA

A secret family recipe created by Captain Frank Edgcumbe-Rendle from his time spent in India during the 2nd World War. A heady blend of herbs and spices originating from India and the Orient lovingly recreated by Captain Frank's son, Christopher.

Perfect serve – Ice, fresh lime
